PATENT COTTON GIN.
THIS Gin can be made double, or single. If made double, they reduce labor, and gin just double, the quantity of cotton over the single cylinder Gin, no other knd having been in use prevous to this patent; and whether single or double, they are found to improve the quality of the cotton, by more perfectly cleaning it. They can be made to contain from 20 to 160 saws in a stand, and whether small or leave one hand will be sufficient to these small or large, one hand will be sufficient to attend them. The Gins have mechanical feeders and hoppers attached to them, which free the cotton from leaves, trash, dirt, &c. before it can reach the saws, and by the thorough hackling operation it receives from the feeders, which make two revolutions to one of the saws, it is almost in a half gined state, before it descends to the saw By a very simple arrangement of a screw th cach say as very simple arrangement of a screw to each set of gaates, on which the hoppers rest, and through which the teeth of the feeders pass, they can be made to teed slow or fast to suit the condition of the cotton at the time. When made double, the saws are placed on two sets of cylinders and turn upon each other in opposite directions, and are cleansed by two sets of brushes that have four revo cleansed by two sets of brushes that have four revolutions to one of twe saw. The two cylinders can be detached so as to enable the planter to run one or both at pleasure, although embraced with feeders, &c., in one stand. The whole is put in operation with a drum and band, as in the ordinary Gin, and may be propelled by horse, steam, or water power. It may also be propelled by iron running gear. The force required to work it, is about the same as that necessary to move an edual number of saws in that necessary to move an equal number of saws in that necessary to move an equal number of saws in the common Gin. This Gin has been put in operation in New Orleans for two or three weeks, and its success tested in the presence of a large number of planters, merchants and others, and received their general approbation.

and was very much pleased with its performance. The mere fact of its self-feeding, seems to me to be a very valuable improvement; and besides, the quality of the cotton, as it comes out of the process, appeared to me to be better and cleaner than from the common Gins in use, and that it saves considerably in labor. Respectfully, &c.

New Orleans, March 6, 1837. rom Mr. G. Senior, a Machinist of New Orleans. Dr. A. Jores—Dear Sir, in answer to your inqui-ry of my opinion of your Patent Cotton Gin, I beg leave to state, that I was fifteen years enga-ged in the cotton factories of Manchester, Engiand, and during four years of that time, I was foreman in the house of Messrs. Lewis, Williams & Co., and near five years spinner in the house of Messrs. Sandford & Greene. I have seen your Cotton Gir in operation, and have examined the cotton ginned by it, and pronounce it better clean-sed, and the staple less injured, than any cotton that ever came under my observation. It is com-pletely ready for the breaker without the aid of the blower, and would, therefore, save the first process in manufacturing the article. I consider cotton cleansed by your Gin, would command from one to two cents on the pound more than the average crops brought into the Manchester market, and

$7 50 per saw, 150 000 Extra teeth where desired, for feeders, supplied at 40 cents each; the number of teeth being about equal to the number of saws. One set of feeders, it is considered however, will wear out two or three sets of saws Extra saws supplied at 80 cents each. The Gins ordered will be delivered to the agents, of planters in any of the sea port towns of the cotton planting States, at the above prices, the agents paying the freight on the same from New York, and becoming responsible for the amount of the Gin.

It is desirable, when planters give orders for Gins, they should accompany them with their views in they should accompany them with their views in regard to the arrangement of saws, breasts, brushes, &c. It is found they differ in opinion. Some desire saws of larger diameter than others. The most common size is 9 or 10 inches; but some wish them 12 inches. Some wish 5 or 6 rows of brushes on an axle, while others do not want more than 4 at most. Some wish saws with 8 or 9 teeth to the inch. while others want 10 or 11. With so much discrepancy, we prefer they should, at the time of giving orders, turnish a statement of their wishes, and the manufacturerers can fulfil them in every particular. Where it is left to our discretion, we particular. Where it is left to our discretion, we shall make them on the most modern and approved plan. An order can be executed, from the time it is received, in the space of eight or nine weeks, and the Gin in that time placed in the hands of the factor. To be in time for the next crop, all orders ought to be in the hands of the manufacturers by the first or middle of May; except for plantations where they are late in commencing to nick or gin where they are late in commencing to pick or gin this morning, I will state, that I have carefully examined your new Patent Cotton Gin, and have found it far superior to those generally used in this terms.

N. B.—The Patent Right, for any one of the cotton growing States, will be sold on reasonable terms.
